SLAYER'S MONEY FOUND IN SHOES

Baston Dismissed and Held . - for Wife Murder.

Policeman Charles G. Baston, wife murderer, was formally dismissed from the police force yesterday. It was done on the technical charge of having violated a section of the police manual which forolds policemen to use their batons or f self-defense and when the circumtances justify such action.

The trial board, meeting at the Seventh recinct station, consisted of Inspector Cross and Captains Elliott and Williams. At 9 a. m. they called the hearing and immediately introduced witnesses who testified to Baston's illegal use of the Money Found in Shoe.

Police of the Seventh precinct station leared up the only mysterious phase in he case last night when they found $92 concealed in his shoes. The money, which was part of his $99 pay, drawn a few hours before the shooting, had been missing and the prisoner refused to tell what became of it.

Before Baston was taken to the Disrict jail last night he was searched at the precinct station and the money was found. He was not given a thorough examination Saturday night when ar-

The coroner's jury yesterday held Bason for trial by the grand jury after an inquest at the morgue. Several witnesses told of the marital troubles of the couple and Dr. Charles White, District deputy coroner, testified of the findings at the autopsy held over Mrs. Baston's body
